

Oscar C. Boldt

Chairman – The Boldt Group, Inc.

Oscar C. Boldt is chairman of The Boldt Group, Inc.

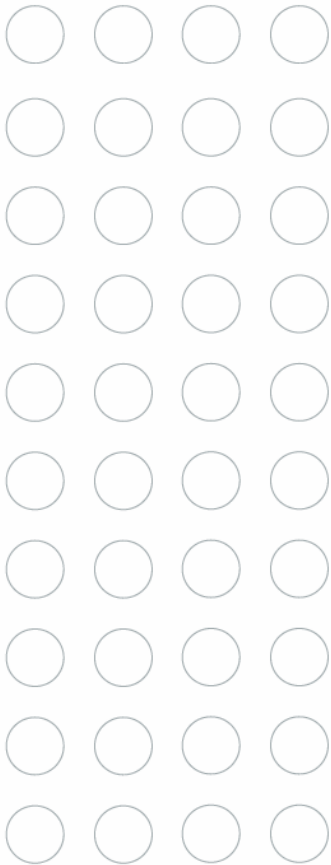

For over 55 years Boldt has been active in the operations of The Boldt Company and its subsidiary companies: Boldt Consulting Services, Boldt Technical Services, and Oscar J. Boldt Construction. Oscar J. Boldt Construction is a family-owned firm which has been in operation since 1889. Boldt is headquartered in Appleton, Wisconsin, and has thirteen offices throughout the country. The company operates throughout the country with the heaviest concentration of activity in the Midwest, South, and East.

Boldt earned his BS degree in Civil Engineering from the University of Wisconsin.

Boldt has received numerous awards including: Ernst & Young Master Entrepreneur of the Year Award, Walter L. Rugland Community Service Award, St. Olaf College Regent's Award, Sales and Marketing Executives of Northeast Wisconsin–Executive of the Year Award, Arts Alliance Renaissance Award, Inductee–Paper Industry International Hall of Fame, American Society of Civil Engineers–Distinguished Constructor Award, Ripon College–Honorary Degree, Lawrence University–Honorary Degree, and Wisconsin Horizon Award.

Boldt has received various awards from the University of Wisconsin: Distinguished Service Citation, Chi Epsilon National Civil Engineering Honor Society, Construction Club–Lifetime Achievement Award, Distinguished Alumni Award, One of Three Founding Fathers of Construction Engineering and Management Program.

His involvement in the community includes but is not limited to: Appleton Medical Center (Board Member), Appleton Rotary Club (Member), Community Foundation for Fox Valley Region, Inc. (Executive Committee Member), Lawrence University (Board of Trustees, Executive Committee), Memorial Presbyterian Church (Elder).

BOLDT®