

Leadership Profile

Linda Nila
Chief Financial Officer

Linda provides Boldt with the financial knowledge and managerial leadership that comes with three decades in the construction industry.

Most recently senior vice president, treasurer and chief financial officer for a national construction firm, Linda is responsible for all aspects of financial matters pertaining to our operational strength, including budgeting, reporting, tax planning, risk management, insurance issues, bonding and banking relationships. She is responsible for our entire corporate finance department and oversees our Information Technology arm.

Linda earned her BS in accounting from Northern Illinois University.

Associations, Awards and Achievements:

- Construction Financial Management Association
- Certified Construction Financial Professional